Summary

The Employer Partnership was created as a way to provide America's employers with a direct link to some of America's finest employees – service members and their families. Through the partnership, service members can leverage their military training and experience for career opportunities in today's civilian job market with national, regional and local Employer Partners.

Currently, there are signed partnership agreements with more than 1,200 employers in nearly every State. There are also over 500,000 employment opportunities with Fortune 500 and Fortune 1000 companies. Various career field opportunities exist at healthcare centers, with law enforcement agencies, transportation companies, and the depth and breadth of State and Federal agencies. These partners recognize the value of hiring a skilled labor force with the potential to reduce the private sector's recruiting and training
